

6 March 1969

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. John Holdridge
INR, Department of State

[redacted]
Estimates Coordination Staff,
Defense Intelligence Agency

[redacted]
B-Group, National Security Agency

Mr. Fred Cassidy
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Dr. Charles H. Reichardt
Atomic Energy Commission

SUBJECT: China Intelligence Activities Coordinating Meeting, 11 March 1969

1. This note confirms my previous invitation to you, by telephone, to participate in the first meeting of this group as presently constituted.
2. We will meet Tuesday morning, 11 March 1969, at 10:00, in the Director's Conference Room 7 D 64, Headquarters Building, Langley. Please plan to stay on for luncheon, as our guests.
3. In addition to remarks on our group's commission and intended style, Tuesday's agenda will touch briefly on these questions:

a. What "China" is as an intelligence target, and what services we think US intelligence can and cannot perform re this target.

b. What services clandestine reporting performs.

c. What US intelligence capabilities are with respect to the Chinese Communist Advanced Weapons problem, and what improvements therein might realistically be considered.

d. What the Sino-Soviet border situation looks like, broadly, and what US intelligence capabilities might be in the event this question should become acute at a future time.

4. Please certify the identity and clearances of those officers attending Tuesday's meeting to the CIAC secretary,

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

China Intelligence Activities Coordinator